PUGLIA - TORITTO (BA) - ALDO MORO SQUARE

Coldwell Banker offers for sale a large commercial space, located in the heart of Toritto, in Piazza Aldo Moro, a place of high passage and reference for the entire community. The property, which is mainly on the ground floor for over 150 square meters, has large windows overlooking the square, ensuring maximum visibility and a constant flow of potential customers. Internally, the spaces are easily customizable and suitable for multiple commercial or service activities, thanks to the presence of bright and well-distributed environments.

To complete the property there is a warehouse of over 100 square meters, located in a strategic position for the storage of goods or for the logistics management of the business. The solution is perfect for those who want to settle in a central and lively area, making the most of the pedestrian passage and proximity to the main services.
